

HERBCODES

Brand Style Guide

Web Design • Development • Management

Clean. Reliable. Engineered.

1. Brand Identity Overview

HerbCodes builds modern, reliable, and scalable digital systems. The brand communicates clarity, precision, and technical competence. Every visual decision must reinforce trust and professionalism.

Personality

- Structured
- Minimal
- Professional
- Confident
- Solution■focused

Services

- Web Design
- Development
- Management

2. Logo System

Primary Logo Usage

- Website headers
- Proposals and documentation
- Marketing and official materials

Icon Only Usage

- Favicons
- Social avatars
- App icons

Do Not

- Stretch or distort
- Add gradients or shadows
- Change colors
- Place on busy backgrounds

3. Colour System

Name	Hex	Usage
Herb Cyan	#05ABC4	Primary accents and CTAs
Herb Mint	#04D3BC	Hover and secondary states
Herb Purple	#681FAB	Marketing accents only
White	#FFFFFF	Backgrounds and space

Usage Ratio: White 60–70%, Cyan/Mint 25–35%, Purple 5% maximum. Accent colors guide attention and should never dominate the layout.

4. Typography System

Heading Typeface — Hammersmith One

Used for titles, hero text, and section headers.

Display Typeface — Bebas Neue

Used sparingly for labels, tags, and strong emphasis.

Body Typeface — Inter / System Sans ■ Serif

Used for paragraphs, UI labels, and long ■ form content.

Recommended Scale

Element	Size
H1	44–52px
H2	32–36px
Body	16–18px
Small	13–14px

5. Layout & Components

Spacing Principles

- Section padding: 80–120px
- Card padding: 20–28px
- Use grid alignment
- Use generous white space
- Avoid clutter

Button Styles

- Primary: Cyan background, white text
- Secondary: White background, cyan border
- Accent: Purple (use sparingly)

6. Imagery & Voice

Imagery Tone

- Clean workspaces
- Code and dashboards
- Devices and product UI
- Minimal, neutral compositions

Brand Voice

Speak clearly and directly. Avoid jargon and marketing hype. Communicate like an engineer explaining solutions simply and confidently.

Precision builds trust. Trust builds long-term clients.